Letter of Invitation

Dear Ms. Sun Fang

I would like to invite you and your colleagues to attend a 15-day training program on Waste recycle and reuse for the production of biogas and biofertilizers and other scientific activities including attending the Green Value Symposium which is organised by NIBIO on August 19, 2019. The train program starts on August 18 and ends on September 1, 2019, at Norwegian Institute of Bioeconomy Research (NIBIO), Ås, Norway. I am informed that this training program is approved by the Ministry of Science and Technology of China (MOST) and all the expenses related to this training program (travel, hotel accommodation and meals) are covered by your own grant provided by the Chinese government for this international training activity. A detailed program for your day-by-day training can be seen in the attachment.
